Freedom of Information Act 2000 – Request for Information

Thank you for your request for information received on 18 December 2018 in relation to the County Durham and Darlington NHS Foundation Trust (Trust). We are dealing with your request under the provisions of the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

You requested information regarding stockpiling medicines. Specifically you requested information as follows:

Has your NHS Foundation Trust stockpiled any medication to prepare for a Brexit ‘no-deal’?

If yes, which types of medication have been stockpiled?

If yes, how many weeks’ worth of medication has been stockpiled?

County Durham and Darlington NHS Foundation Trust replies:

The Trust together with partners in County Durham and Darlington Local Resilience Forum holds information on a wide range of subjects to enable contingency planning. This information includes considerations relating to the UK exit from the European Union.

We are not obliged to confirm or deny whether we hold the information you have requested as this would prejudice or be likely to prejudice the effective conduct of public affairs. Section 36(3) of the Act provides that there is no duty to confirm or deny whether we hold the information.

In line with the Information Commissioner’s directive on the disclosure of information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 your request will form part of our disclosure log. Therefore, a version of our response which will protect your anonymity will be posted on the County Durham and Darlington NHS Foundation Trust website.

If you have any queries or wish to discuss the information supplied, please do not hesitate to contact me on the above telephone number or at the above address.

If you are unhappy with the way your request for information has been handled, you can request a review by writing to:

The Chief Executive
County Durham & Darlington NHS Foundation Trust
