Freedom of Information Act 2000 – Request for Information

Thank you for your request for information received on 18 September 2019 in relation to the County Durham and Darlington NHS Foundation Trust (Trust). We are dealing with your request under the provisions of the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

You requested information regarding abortion medication. Specifically you requested information as follows:

In the last three years, have any cases of women being admitted because they took abortion pills ordered online been recorded by staff at the hospitals looked after by your Trust?

If so how many?

The number from three calendar years (2016, 2017, 2018) would be appreciated?

County Durham and Darlington NHS Foundation Trust replies:

The Trust is unable to provide the information requested as it would take a number of days to just to identify all the relevant sets of notes required to be manually examined needed. We are refusing this section of your request for information pursuant to section 12 of the Act on the grounds that we estimate that the cost of complying with the request would exceed the appropriate limit. The appropriate limit at the present time is £450.00 which equates to eighteen and a quarter hours of work by a member of staff at the rate of £25 per hour.
